

High Holiday Services

For Those Who Aren't So High On The Holidays

Led by Dr. Matt Goldish*

Not looking forward to Rosh Hashanah again this year? Do you feel like you go to the synagogue out of guilt and feel even more guilty after you leave? You don't understand the language and don't feel inspired?

Believe it or not, millions of American Jews feel exactly the way you do. That's why the National Jewish Outreach Program and Congregation Ahavas Sholom have designed a High Holiday Learners Service. The Learners Service is conducted in both English and Hebrew, so everyone can follow along. All prayers and traditions will be explained by Dr. Matt Goldish. Questions are encouraged. You'll even be able to sing along! Lunch hospitality is also available with families from the synagogue after services.

Rosh Hashanah morning 9:30am – 1:00pm
Friday, September 10, 2010

Contact Synagogue Office at 252-4815.

Congregation Ahavas Sholom 2568 East Broad Street Columbus, Ohio 43209

*Dr. Matt Goldish, professor of Jewish History, is the Director of the Melton Center for Jewish Studies at Ohio State, faculty of the Florence Melton Adult Mini School and a member of Ahavas Sholom.

Congregation Ahavas Sholom is a Modern Orthodox synagogue. Jews of any affiliation or no affiliation are invited to attend this service.

This service is only being offered on the second day of Rosh Hashanah.

